

EILEEN WALLACE FELLOWSHIP IN CHILDREN'S LITERATURE

The Eileen Wallace Children's Literature Collection at The University of New Brunswick provides funding for the purpose of research and scholarship in the field of children's literature. The award is valued up to $5,000 Canadian per annum. To be eligible for this award, applicants must show evidence of scholarly knowledge in the field of children's literature, use UNB's Children's Literature Collection in the course of their research, and acknowledge both the fellowship and the collection in any subsequent publication that results from that research. This award is not intended to support research toward the completion of a degree program.

Applications should be made to the Dean of Libraries, University of New Brunswick, by March 1st of each year.

Completed applications can be submitted electronically to The Curator of the Eileen Wallace Children's Literature Collection at sfisher@unb.ca.

Alternatively, print applications can be mailed to:

Sue Fisher, Curator
Eileen Wallace Children's Literature Collection
Harriet Irving Library
PO Box 7500
5 Macaulay Drive
Fredericton, NB
Canada, E3B 5H5

The winner will be selected by UNB's Children's Literature Advisory Committee. The committee reserves the right to make no award in any given year. Other awards may be held in conjunction with this award.
